Mary W. Cooper was elected to the Village Board of Trustees in 2019.

A Glenview resident since 1988, she is the founder of Cooper Consulting, which provides strategic marketing services. She has deep experience working on complex business issues for enterprise consumer food and beverage brands and major retailers.

Cooper's service includes as a hands-on volunteer, fundraiser and member of non-for-profit boards. She served on the boards of directors for the Junior League of Chicago and Valley Lo Club. She was integral in the development of the Wagner Farm strategic plan, an active volunteer in the Glenview District 34 Schools, and volunteered for Scouts and her church. She currently works to support Operation Warm, Bernie's Books and other local charities.

Cooper earned an MBA with a marketing specialization from Saint Louis University and a B.S. in Speech Communications from Southern Illinois University-Carbondale.

She and her husband raised four children who attended Glenview elementary schools and Glenbrook South High School.
